Write the word and meaning into your homework book.	Write a book review of one of the books that you have read. Explain what it's about but don't give too much away. Who would enjoy the book and why?	Write a letter to the new king. Remember to use formal and polite language. Give him suggestions on how a king should behave.	Look out of your window. Write a diary entry describing what you can see. Write a second diary entry imagining what you might see there in 500 years' time.
I enjoy being mathematical and scientific. YOU MUST COMPLETE AT LEAST ONE ACTIVITY FROM THIS ROW	Think of a three-digit number. Get someone at home to play '20 questions' to see if they can guess your number.	During a journey (car or walking), record 10 of the numbers you spot in number plates. When you get home, can you add all of these together to find the total?	Log on to Rock Star Times Tables and earn at least 300 points for your year group battles.	Make a Christmas gift list. Write down the cost of each item (to the nearest pound) and calculate the total cost. As a challenge, why not try to keep inside of a 'budget'?	Design and make your own juice drink. Measure out each of the ingredients and try your mixture! Remember to write down the ingredients and make an instruction sheet how to make it. Photos can be added.

Add details such patterns.	Make a Christmas card that has a special feature (e.g. pop out, moving parts or a flap).	Imagine you have opened up your own chain of healthy food shops. Design your own logo/name and make some of the items you will need e.g. a takeaway box, a menu, healthy recipes.....
I enjoy being active and doing hands-on activities.	Throw a tennis ball in the air and catch it. Can you clap whilst it is in the air? How many claps can you do? Challenge yourself to beat your own score each day for a week.	Help someone at home to complete a day-to-day job. This could be linked to cooking, cleaning, DIY etc.	Practise your touch-typing skills on http://www.bbc.co.uk/guides/z3c6tfr Use what you have learned to type a message to the class.	Visit a place of interest that you haven't been to before. Take photos of your visit and write three things you happened or you learnt.	Create your own dance routine to your favourite Christmas music. You might want to sing too. Then ask your family to judge your performance.
I enjoy finding out about the world around me.	Research about a place you want to visit. Why do you want to visit it?	Can you locate Spain on a map and find out its capital city.	Create a map of the places you have been to and would like to go around the world.	What do you think are the five most important landmarks in the United Kingdom? Make a list of them.	Pick two countries in the world. Create a fact-file that tells the reader about how each of them celebrates Christmas. Is it similar to that of the UK?
